

Facilitator Profile

Dr. Blair is the CEO of Strategize 4 Success, LLC. She is a sought-after speaker, facilitator, leadership trainer and executive coach. Ambitious Leaders and Entrepreneurs work with her when they are READY to EXCEL in their leadership role! She empowers them with the confidence and courage to apply for positions connected to their WHY so they can go from stuck to unstoppable and not settle for a complacent career that no longer serves them!

She has a passion for inspiring people to reignite their WHY by encouraging innovation, commitment, and passion. Her straight-forward nature encourages authentic and energizing conversations that challenge people to identify their inner strengths and abilities and foster the confidence to realize their full potential.

Dr. Blair uses her expertise in organizational development, leadership development, and curriculum design to train on various topics for seminars, workshops, conferences, and retreats. She founded Strategize 4 Success- a personal and professional growth and development consultancy that provides coaching, leadership development, and training. Individuals often acknowledge her for her candid, conversational, and insightful approach. She is passionate about helping people thrive personally and professionally.

Dr. Blair is trained and certified in a variety of assessment tools including, MBTI®, FIRO®, and John Maxwell DISC. She also has numerous certifications in several leadership areas to include Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI). As an executive coach, she works with executives and entrepreneurs to enhance their leadership skills while helping them to identify areas of strengths which encourage them to become more self-aware and effective leaders.